Another ladies chorus that has performed at many church and civic functions is the "Choralettes," organized in 1957 by Mrs. Virginia Green. The group began with 15 members and by 1961 had grown to 45 singers. Mrs. Green has continued as director with Yvonne Miller, Diana Witt and Carole Harnden as accompanists and Thelma Wootton, narrator. Officers have been elected each year and have included Maryan Ryan, Clara Gardner and Ruth McGuire, presidents; Nelda Lee, Beva Welch and Merle Davis, vice presidents; Cleo Hiatt, Brenita Averett and Geneal Cutler, secretary-treasurers.

The group presents an annual concert each Spring and has been presenting proceeds of the concerts to Wasatch Stake for a new Stake Tabernacle. A yearly Christmas program is also presented in wards, schools and to private groups.

Still another musical activity in Heber has been a traditional Martial Band. Early settlers in the valley organized a fife and drum corps and

Edward Carlson

Edward Carlson, 87, returned home to his Heavenly Father on March 18, 1992 after a valiant struggle with complications incident to age in Bountiful, Utah.

He was born August 28, 1904 in Murray, Utah, the oldest of 12 children, of Carl Gustav Emil and Martha Victoria Carlstrom Carlson. Attended Murray City schools and graduated from Murray High School. Married Elda Anona Christensen Sept. 4, 1942 in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. He grew up fixing cars in his father's car dealership and gas station. He worked at the Murray Cannery and Murray Smelter and spent many years in mining and oil exploration. He served in the Army Air Corp during World War II. He was an active member of the LDS Church throughout his life and was a high priest in the Farmington 19th Ward at the time of his death.

He is survived by his wife of 50 years; children and their spouses, Sharon and Richard Palmer, Morrison, Colo.; Susan and Curtis B. Empey, Ogden; Brian E. and Julene Carlson, Farmington; 15 grandchildren; one brother, Kenneth Carlson, Garden Grove, Calif.; three sisters, Vivian Lindsay and Beverly Billows, both of Salt Lake City; and Norma White, Kanab. He was preceded in death by four brothers, three sisters and a granddaughter, Teresa Palmer.

His gentle spirit, loving nature and dry wit, will be missed by all who know him.

Funeral services will be 11 a.m., Monday, March 23, 1992, at the Farmington 19th Ward, 695 South 200 East. Friends may call Sunday from 6-8 p.m. at the Cottonwood Mortuary, 4670 Highland Drive, and Monday, at the church one hour prior to services. Interment, Monday, 2 p.m., Holladay Memorial Park, 1900 East Memory Lane (4900 So.)
